COUNCIL IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2026/267
of 29 January 2026
implementing Regulation (EU) No 359/2011 concerning restrictive measures directed against certain persons, entities and bodies in view of the situation in Iran

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EU) No 359/2011 of 12 April 2011 concerning restrictive measures directed against certain persons, entities and bodies in view of the situation in Iran <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Article 12(1) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,

Whereas:

- (1) On 12 April 2011, the Council adopted Regulation (EU) No 359/2011.
- (2) The Council conclusions of 12 December 2022 stressed that the Union strongly rejected Iran's practice of arbitrary detention of foreign citizens, including dual nationals, and called upon Iran to end the distressing practice of detaining innocent foreign civilians with a view to making political gains. The Union reminded Iran of its international obligations under the Vienna Conventions on Diplomatic and Consular Relations and urged the Iranian authorities to abide by those obligations.
- (3) On 9 January 2026, the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy issued a statement on behalf of the Union noting with great concern the reports on casualties and condemning the use of violence, arbitrary detention and intimidation tactics by security forces against demonstrators. The statement called for all individuals unjustly detained for exercising their fundamental rights to be released immediately and urged Iranian authorities to adhere to Iran's international obligations and fully uphold the rights to freedom of expression, association and peaceful assembly. It also called for ensuring the right of access to information, including by restoring access to the internet for all.
- (4) In that context, and in line with the Union's commitment to address all issues of concern with Iran, including the human rights situation, 15 persons and six entities should be included in the list of natural and legal persons, entities and bodies subject to restrictive measures set out in Annex I to Regulation (EU) No 359/2011.
- (5) Regulation (EU) No 359/2011 should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Annex I to Regulation (EU) No 359/2011 is amended in accordance with the Annex to this Regulation.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the date of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 29 January 2026.

For the Council

The President

K. KALLAS

Eskandar MOMENI اسکندر مؤمنی	Function: Minister of the Interior; Head of the National Security Council;  Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC)  DOB: 1962  POB: Qaem Shahr, Iran  Nationality: Iranian  Gender: male	Eskandar Momeni is Iran's Minister of the Interior and Head of the National Security Council. In this role, he oversees Iran's Law Enforcement Forces (LEF), which are responsible for blatant and severe human rights violations in the country. Momeni also serves as Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) and in this capacity oversees different security forces of the IRGC, including the Basij Resistance Force. In his dual role, Momeni is responsible for suppressing street protests, which have seen hundreds of casualties at the hands of different security forces under his control. Momeni was also put in charge of an investigation into the death in August 2024 of Mohammad Mirmousavi, who was tortured to death by security forces, and Momeni exonerated the security forces in that case by blaming the victim.  Eskandar Momeni is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in Iran.	29.1.2026
246.	Mohammad MOVAHEDI-AZAD محمد موحدی آزاد	Function: Prosecutor General  DOB: 6.9.1960  POB: Qom, Iran  Nationality: Iranian  Gender: male	Mohammad Movahedi-Azad is Prosecutor General and has held a series of important offices in Iran's judicial system, especially in Tehran. During his professional career he has issued and upheld unfair sentences, in particular against protesters and minorities, sought to suppress dissent and freedom of expression, and overseen torture. During the nationwide protests in Iran that began in December 2025, in his capacity as Prosecutor General he threatened protesters with the death penalty for "enmity against God" and called for the seizure of their assets.  Mohammad Movahedi-Azad is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in Iran.	29.1.2026
