COUNCIL IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2026/2184

of 28 September 2026

implementing Regulation (EU) No 269/2014 concerning restrictive measures in respect of actions undermining or threatening the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EU) No 269/2014 of 17 March 2014 concerning restrictive measures in respect of actions undermining or threatening the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine [1], and in particular Article 14(1) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,

Whereas:

(1) On 17 March 2014, the Council adopted Regulation (EU) No 269/2014.

(2) In its conclusions of 18 and 19 June 2026, the European Council reaffirmed its continued firm and unwavering support for Ukraine's independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity within its internationally recognised borders. The European Council stated that the Union will continue to provide, in coordination with like-minded partners and allies, comprehensive political, financial, economic, humanitarian, military and diplomatic support to Ukraine and its people. The European Council also expressed the Union's readiness to step up pressure on Russia, including by adopting further sanctions.

(3) In view of Russia's continued war of aggression against Ukraine, and in particular its systematic unlawful deportation and forcible transfer of Ukrainian children to the Russian Federation and within temporary occupied territories, as well as their forced adoption and re-education, which constitute grave breaches of international law and a violation of the fundamental rights of the child with the aim to erase Ukrainian identity and undermine the preservation of its future generations, the Council considers it necessary to adopt further restrictive measures.

(4) In particular, the Council considers that 10 persons and 17 entities should be added to the list of persons, entities and bodies subject to restrictive measures set out in Annex I to Regulation (EU) No 269/2014.

(5) Regulation (EU) No 269/2014 should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

Annex I to Regulation (EU) No 269/2014 is amended in accordance with the Annex to this Regulation.

[1] OJ L 78, 17.3.2014, p. 6, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2014/269/oj.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the date of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

Done at Brussels, 28 September 2026.

For the Council

The President

M. HEYDON

Previously, Renard Kutkovsky was the Head of the Department of Education and Youth Policy, helping to shape local education governance. In his official capacity within the occupation administration, Renard Kutkovsky promotes Russian state-sponsored patriotic events portraying Russia's actions as legitimate and endorses narratives aligned with Russian state policy. Renard Kutkovsky implements decisions adopted under Russian federal and regional frameworks. The Department of Education and Youth Policy and the Department of Culture, which are under the supervision of Renard Kutkovsky, implement state and regional educational policies aligned with Russian federal standards, such as supplying Kremlin approved books. Those departments also advance programmes that promote militarised and ideological training of children, such as cadet classes and Cossack initiatives. Those activities are designed to integrate Yalta's education system into that of the Russian Federation. Renard Kutkovsky is responsible for promoting events emphasising loyalty to Russia, military-patriotic exhibitions and for "patriotic upbringing" initiatives targeting students in occupied Crimea. Therefore, Renard Kutkovsky is implementing policies which threaten the territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence of Ukraine. Furthermore, Renard Kutkovsky is implementing actions and policies contributing to the forced assimilation, including indoctrination, of Ukrainian minors.	28.9.2026

Songdowon International Children’s Camp Korean: 송도원국제소년단야영소	Address: Songdowon District, Wonsan, Kangwon Province, Democratic People’s Republic of Korea (DPRK) Type of entity: Youth facility Place of registration: DPRK	The Songdowon International Children’s Camp (the “Camp”) is a state-operated institution directly created, maintained, and controlled by authorities of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea (DPRK). In that capacity, the Camp participates in organised programmes involving the transfer of Ukrainian children from temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine to the DPRK. Those programmes are implemented in coordination with actors linked to the Russian Federation, including through Russian state-affiliated youth initiatives and through occupation authorities, which facilitate the selection, movement, and participation of the children. The Camp provides reception, accommodation, and structured programming for participating children under the framework of purported “cultural exchange” initiatives. However, those programmes serve a broader propagandistic function, as Ukrainian children are exposed to curated narratives and activities designed to promote pro-Russian narrative. In that context, the Camp contributes to efforts aimed at the ideological conditioning and russification of Ukrainian children, including exposure to political messaging and elements of militarised or state-directed training. Therefore, the Songdowon International Children’s Camp is responsible for actions and policies contributing to the forced assimilation, including indoctrination, and militarised education of Ukrainian minors.	28.9.2026
