1. Introduction

The most relevant sections of the State Ordinance Supervision Insurance Business (AB 2000 no. 82) (the ordinance) relating to the application for an insurance licence are set out below. However, it is still necessary to review the whole ordinance in order to have a complete picture of the conditions and requirements stipulated in this ordinance. The ordinance (including the unofficial English translation hereof) is also available at the website of the Centrale Bank van Aruba (the Bank): www.cbaruba.org

2. General licence requirements for insurance companies

In accordance with section 5, paragraph 1 of the ordinance an insurance company is prohibited to engage direct or indirect in the insurance business in or from Aruba without a license from the Bank. An insurance company should not conduct any activities other than in connection with or for the purposes of its specific insurance business. Operations not related to insurance within the same entity is not allowed. Pursuant to section 5, paragraph 2 of the ordinance a license is granted either to engage in the life insurance or the general insurance business (principle of specialization). Furthermore, it is stipulated that a license to engage in the general insurance business shall be granted per line of insurance. The following five indemnity lines are distinguished:

- a. accident and health;

- c. maritime, transport, and aviation;
- d. fire insurance and other property;

- there is no question of an influence on the applicant which is contrary to a sound policy for insurers, or of a circumstance that could bring this about as a result of a qualified holding in the applicant;
- the declaration of the auditor that accompanies the annual financial statements or opening balance sheet should imply that these present a true and fair view of the size and composition of the capital of the applicant;
- the applicant is able to realize its intentions as mentioned in its program of activities, the envisaged management controls and administrative organization, or meet the requirements to be imposed on it in connection with the supervision;
- the granting of a license to the applicant does not lead to an undesirable development of the insurance sector, or to a circumstance that could bring this about;
- the applicant meets at least the minimum solvency margin requirements as mentioned in section 14, third paragraph of the ordinance.

Furthermore, all insurance companies should be able to comply continuously with the requirements and conditions stipulated in the ordinance, as well as the regulations issued by the Bank.

3. Licence requirements and admission policy with respect to branches and agencies of insurance companies not established in Aruba

In order to ensure a sound development of the insurance sector in Aruba (refer to section 7 sub e and h of the ordinance), a branch office or an agency of an insurance company not established in Aruba will, in principle, only be considered for granting or holding a licence as referred to in section 5 of the ordinance if the following requirements are met:

2. The parent company has an adequate financial strength and a solid reputation.

3. The supervision conducted by the supervisory authorities of the parent company (the home country supervisor) is of an adequate level and of a comprehensive nature.

4. The Principles Applicable to the Supervision of International Insurers and Insurance Groups and their Cross-Border Operations (Insurance Concordat December 1999), issued by the International Association of Insurance Supervisors, are endorsed by the home country supervisor.

The elements listed under 1, 2, 3 and 4 are described in more detail below.

Branch offices or agencies
In view of the changing market conditions and in order to be able to better protect the interest of policyholders the Bank has deemed it necessary to strengthen its admission policy with respect to foreign insurance institutions operating via branch offices or agencies. Only international insurers that are able to comply with the requirements mentioned under point 3 above will be considered for admission as a branch office or agency.

Financial strength and solid reputation
It is a prerequisite that the applicant provides certified financial statements over the last three years to prove the financial soundness of the parent company. Important elements in the Bank’s assessment of said financial strength are among other things: capitalization, profitability, liquidity, audit and internal controls, quality of management as well as policies and procedures.

Quality of the supervision of the home country authorities
The leading guideline for the Bank’s policy continues to be that the supervision conducted by the home country supervision meets international standards. In addition, the Bank must be able to exchange information with the home country supervisor of the parent company so that it can be established that the home country supervision is adequate and meets international standards and the parent company meets the regulatory requirements of the home country.

Insurance Concordat December 1999
The Bank has endorsed the Principles Applicable to the Supervision of International Insurers and Insurance Group and their Cross-Border Business Operations issued by the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS). These Principles establish a framework for co-operation between insurance supervisors.
